

THE SIGNIFICANCE OF YOUR WORDS

The Mystery Of Believing, Speaking & Seeing

Foundation Statement: Your life in this natural world is matching what you've been saying

I. Believing, speaking, and seeing is a mystery of the Kingdom (Matthew 13:10)

- A. There are things in this new system of God, that are going to be beyond your human comprehension and you're going to have to receive them by faith
 - 1. Satan likes to keep mysteries of the Kingdom covered, because it keeps us from reaching our potential in God; It's God's will that we understand these mysteries
- B. Mark 11:23-He started it off w/ verily b/c it's going beyond their human comprehension
 - 1. Mysteries of the Kingdom have to be revealed by the Spirit & although it doesn't take Him long to reveal it, it takes time for you to receive; Mysteries have depth
 - 2. There are people who heard this preached and got excited and inspired without getting understanding and Satan stole it from them; they left it

II. From the beginning there's always been a connection between what a person said and what they had in the natural realm

- A. Gen 1, Ps 33:6-God spoke & had what he said; What God said, He saw come 2 pass

 - 1. Why is he talking to a tree? B/C he knows natural things will respond to Words
 - 2. Mark 11:22-23-Jesus teaches us that we can have what we say
 - 3. There's a connection between what a man has in the natural world & what he says
- C. How does this work?-You're going to bring things forth in your life based on what's in your heart and coming out your mouth (Matthew 12:34, Proverb 18:21, 4:23)
 - 1. Your heart is connected to your mouth and your mouth is connected to your life
 - a. What you believe you will speak, what you speak you will have
 - b. Your natural world will match what you're believing and saying
 - 2. Their lives matched what they said (1 Sam 17:45, Num 14:28, Dan 3, Mark 5)
 - a. What you're not saying with your mouth will not come to pass in your life
- D. Jesus & God operated this way; we are 2 operate this way (Mk 4:35, Lk 13:8)
 - 1. Religion will not teach you to act like God, but when you come into the Kingdom another mystery is that you are to act just like him (Ephesians 5:1)
 - 2. Romans 5:17, Revelation 1:6-You were made to rule with your words

III. Uncovering the mystery: The natural realm was created by believing and speaking and it was created to respond to believing and speaking

A. Where did this natural world come from?

1. God, who is a Spirit, spoke words, and believed that what he said would come to pass and created every natural thing (John 4:24, Psalm 33:6)
 - a. God used His words and His faith and created the natural world
 - b. Everything in this world directly or indirectly was created by God, who is a spirit, speaking words of faith (Heb 11:3)
 - 1) What you see was created by God who is spirit, speaking words of faith
2. The natural came from the spiritual
 - a. The creator always has dominion over the creation
 - 1) EX: A car is created by a man and therefore is subject to a man
3. Spirit has dominion/control/power over natural
 - a. The natural was created by spirit and therefore is subject to spirit
 - b. That's why Jesus could walk on water b/c he's spirit; that's why he could multiply the fish and loaves; that's why he could walk through angry people unharmed; that's why he could touch a leper and not get leprosy because he's a spirit operating as a spirit through a body above the natural
 - 1) He's not subject to water, natural lack, death, leprosy; they're subject 2 him
 - c. The more you learn to operate out of your spirit the more dominion you'll operate in, in the natural realm
 - d. Satan wants you governed by your flesh because it keeps you from dominion

B. This natural world was created by words; Words become things

1. Words are seeds and the job of a seed is to become (Luke 8:11)

 2. When we load our heart with the word and speak from our spirit in faith we can change natural things with our words
 3. Things haven't been responding to our words b/c we've been speaking from our head or an unloaded heart
