Contentment & Increase

- I. Being content doesn't mean we don't desire, but it means we don't have to have our desires fulfilled to be at peace-Hb13:5-Let your conversation be without covetousness and be content with such things as you have-1Tm6:8-Having food and raiment let us be therewith content
 - A. Contentment means I have peace in my present state-I need nothing else

- II. The ditch of contentment makes you passive and it's the enemy of advancement
 - A. One way Satan has gotten us to be passive is by selling us a lie of contentment (be content and don't desire/more)-He wants the church to sit back, be quiet, have no vision, go after nothing and believe they are being holy in doing so
 - B. The enemy wants to lull the church into a passive state, because in that state nothing happens-If you don't desire to advance you won't-

- III. Be thankful for what God has done, require nothing else to be at peace, but desire to come up to the next level that God has for you
